

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES A. GARFIELD,

Of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,

Of New York.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Gen. Hancock, of Pennsylvania, for President and Jas. E. English of Connecticut for Vice President.

CINCINNATI, June 24.—The Convention was called to order at 10:30 a. m.

Peckham, of Albany, New York, said the New York delegation has received a letter from Tilden, renouncing his candidacy for the Presidency. He then presented the letter and said that New York had agreed on a candidate—Randall of Pennsylvania.

The roll of States was then called on a second ballot, with this result:

Hancock 316, Bayard 113, Field 65 1/2, Hendricks 31, Thurman 50, Tilden 67, Randall 120, Jewett 1, Parker 2, English 19.

Wisconsin then changed her 20 for Hancock and New Jersey followed with her 18, amid great cheering.

A number of delegates jumped upon chairs and vehemently attempted to be heard. A scene of confusion followed.

Pennsylvania wheeled in for Hancock, with New York solid close behind.

The roll of States for the third and last ballot was then ordered, and down to Georgia Hancock got every vote.

Official count: Hancock 705, Hendricks, 30, Bayard 2, Tilden 1.

The nomination of Hancock has been made unanimous. There was not a dissenting vote.

The following is the substance of the Chinese plank in the platform: It calls for an amendment of the Burlingame treaty, and for no more Chinese immigration, except for travel, education and foreign commerce, and therein carefully guarded.

John Kelley made a speech in which he said that the nomination of Hancock unites the Democracy of New York and asks that all past differences be forgotten.

English, of Connecticut, was nominated for Vice President. The nomination was made unanimous.

At 3 p. m., the Convention adjourned sine die.

THE PLATFORM.

For the first time in this State the platform of principles adopted by the National Republican Convention in Chicago on June 5, 1880, is published in full and correctly. The resolutions, as transmitted by telegraph, were incomplete, owing to the disturbances in the electric currents, while other publications of the platform, which pretended to correctness, have been mutilated, and therefore are of no value. The importance of presenting and preserving the true text of the resolutions is apparent.

The will of the late Chas. De Young was filed for probate in San Francisco on the 22d. It names R. H. Lloyd and M. H. De Young as his executors, and was dated two years ago. It declares that he and his brother M. H. De Young own the Chronicle and the property and material used in carrying it on, of which testator owns two-thirds. It bequeathes his estate and property of all kinds to his brother M. H., except certain bequests to relatives and friends, aggregating about $15,000, including $10,000 to M. H., conditional on his giving it to his brother Gustavus, in case he regains his sanity. It is provided for the payment of portion of the profits of the Chronicle to his relatives for their maintenance. The executors state in their petition for probate that they are unable at present to state the value of the estate. A legacy of $1,000 is given to Mr. Tammans, and one of $250 to Mr. Anderson, employee of the journal. It is a curious coincidence that the will bears date exactly two years before the day upon which De Young was shot.

The latest charge against Garfield is that he smokes. The Sun is making investigations to discover if he ever played poker. If it is proved that when a boy he played penny-ante in the barn, or that after his arrival at man's estate he had a pat-flush beaten for $40, he may as well withdraw from the canvass. The American people would never countenance such a wicked man for President.

Politics will boil at a lively rate after the Fourth.

STATE FAIR FOR 1880.

LIVE STOCK.

For the most meritorious exhibition in this Department, the Society's GOLD MEDAL.

Exhibition of the stock will commence on the second day of the Fair, in the order named in the premium list, and continue until all have been exhibited. The committee will begin work on the second day and continue until all the premiums have been decided. All stock must be brought into the speed-ring at the grand parade of the stock, to begin precisely at 10 o'clock a. m., the second, fourth and sixth days of the Fair.

No stock will be awarded a premium that does not appear in the parade.

In this department the same animal cannot be entered more than once, except in sweepstakes, or as a colt with its sire or dam, as a member of a family. Any sire or dam competing in a race will be allowed to enter for a premium with their families.

No animal will be allowed to compete for a premium unless free from disease or blemish which can be transmitted to posterity.

GROUP I—THOROUGHBRED HORSES.

In this group all horses must furnish a complete pedigree on side of both sire and dam, tracing lineage to the English parent. The English and American Stud Book will be taken as standard authority on pedigree.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17, 1880.

The serenade to General Garfield, at his hotel last night was a brilliant affair.

Although but short time was allowed for preparations the affair will rank as one of the most successful political demonstrations ever held in the city of Washington. There were 10,000 people in attendance and the enthusiasm and cheers at the mention of prominent names was deafening.

Speeches were made by Attorney-General Devens, General Garfield, Hon. George M. Robeson, ex-Secretary of the Navy, and now a Representative, Senator Williams of Wisconsin, General Logan and others. Altogether the affair was a complete success, and the enthusiasm in this truly National city is an index of the feeling of Republicans all over the land.

The Democratic mud-slingers who have been seeking to injure General Garfield by a republication of scandals, forgotten and disproved long ago have got to work early this year. They have in fact, burnt all their powder before the battle. When the Cincinnati nomination is made, I doubt not but that all their energies will be taxed in keeping the filth from their own doors. The charge of General Garfield's being implicated in the Credit Mobilier, criminally, is denied by Judge Black, a prominent Democrat and the salary grab and De Golyer pavement charges have been nailed as lies. It is the chief endeavor of the Democrats to put the Republicans upon the defensive in the matter of General Garfield's record. But as his record needs no defensive some one will be disappointed.

Congress adjourned yesterday. The closing scenes were very quiet

Afternoon Board.

A gust of wind whistled yesterday afternoon's stock report out of the printers hands and took it to Wadsworth, hence its absence this morning.

THE CRADLE.

BENDER—In Reno, June 24, 1880, to the wife of C. T. Bender, a daughter.

THE ALTAR.

ALLEN—In Reno, June 23, 1880, at the residence of the bride's father, by Bishop Whitaker, Edward A. Allen of Carson, and Miss Florence H. Ringo of Reno.

Fourth of July.

A number of citizens assembled at the Justice Court last night, and organized by appointing R. L. Fulton Chairman and H. J. Thyes Secretary. It was decided to celebrate and the following committees were appointed:

Finance—S. A. Hamlin, M. J. Smith, C. A. Bragg and Wm. Webster.

Arrangements—Frank Bell, T. F. Laycock and W. H. Getchell.

Mr. Hamlin stated that the members were ready to stand in.

A subscription list was opened in the meeting and $65.50 subscribed. The meeting then adjourned until to-morrow night at 8 o'clock, to hear the report of the Finance Committee.

The meeting was quite enthusiastic and the committees will go immediately to work.

Gone Away.

Yesterday morning the trains carried away quite a number of Renoites. Mrs. Bourne and daughter went to visit friends in Nevada county. Miss Emery will spend her vacation in San Francisco. Mrs. J. W. Maddrill and children went to visit relatives in Grass Valley. Many of the young ladies who have been attending the Seminary, departed for their several homes. Misses Frankie Gibbs and Royce will leave in a day or two to spend their vacation in Oakland. Several excursion parties to the lakes and northern valleys are talked of.

Fine Playing.

The four expert base ballists give exhibitions of scientific playing on Plaza street each evening, and attract a crowd who never saw such playing before. Leary, who used to get $175 a month for pitching, is a whole nine in himself. They will go two on a side in the game next Sunday. Should they all go on one side, a field full of local players could not beat them.

Lassen Pass Road.

Mr. A. H. Disabell is in town for the purpose of collecting what money was subscribed toward building the Lassen Pass road by Reno men. He tells us that the road has been completed to the Summit from this side and that the Goose Lake people will have their side finished in time to accommodate travel. The road has been pushed through and a good job has been done.

Bender's Bank.

There was no "run" on the bank of D. A. Bender & Co., because of the failure of the Savings Bank. Even had there been everybody would have got their money, and there would then have been a tray of $20 pieces left. During the day Bender received offers of aid from two of the biggest California banks.

Nothing has yet been done about the survey for the new northern railroad. President Davis is expected up here daily. Gov. Woods is still in town.

Owing to the bank failure, the Democrats did not "ratify" last night. The meeting has been postponed until Saturday night.

There are letters in the Virginia City postoffice, held for postage, addressed to Jos. Leonard and Kate Brady, Reno.

The bank suspension was the topic of conversation yesterday. Even the Hancock and English men discussed it.

D. A. Bender came down from Carson yesterday afternoon.

The Maine Republican State Convention renominated Governor Davis, and heartily approved the nomination of Garfield and Arthur.

SUSPENSION OF THE RENO SAVINGS BANK.

A Bad Blow For Reno.

Had this town been destroyed by fire their could not have been greater astonishment or more sorrow when it became known that the Reno Savings Bank did not open its doors at the usual hour, and when a little slip of paper with the word "Suspended" on it, was seen pasted on the inside of the window, everybody's heart sank. A JOURNAL reporter immediately repaired to Mr. Kinkead's residence, and found that gentleman in bed, completely prostrated, mentally and physically. Mr. Kinkead stated that the cause was on account of having done too much business on too little capital; that in order to accommodate the public all the money had been loaned out, and that it had been impossible to collect it in; that under ordinary circumstances the securities held could have been realized on, but that owing to the extremely hard times it had been utterly impossible to raise more money. He felt that the Bank's assets were greater than its liabilities and that if it could collect in, everybody would be paid in full. As for himself he hadn't a quarter in the world, but didn't care, provided no others suffered.

We know that the Bank has done an immense business, and that the dividends paid to stockholders have been enormous. The fault seems to have been that no proper reserve fund was provided for.

Yesterday afternoon a great many attachments were got out against the Bank, as follows: W. S. Baily, $2,100. Geo. Fockham $1,500; Estate Larcombe $7,000; Lake, $43,000; Stanaway and Ward $1,500; Jerry Schooling, $1,100; and three attachments from the Justice Court; in all, amounting to over $60,000, more than enough to eat up all the mortgages on record.

Considerable comment is indulged in over the fact that Mr. Crockett was on hand early in the morning and removed three sacks of money, taking it back to Carson with him. Attorney Haydon intends to ask for a citation to have Mr. Crockett appear, and show who it belongs to.

Mr. Lake, the President of the Bank, says he knows nothing about the affair, except that he is probably more loser than everybody else put together.

Universal sympathy is expressed for Mr. Kinkead, and it is hoped that things are not as bad as reported.

After Horse Thieves.

A dispatch dated at Hollister, San Benito county, Cal., June 21 says: It is impossible to obtain a minute account of the latest affray between citizens and horse thieves, as the members of the posse who went in pursuit of the robbers, and returned with the stolen horses and the arms and effects of the thieves are very reticent about giving any particulars. Enough has been elicited, however, to substantiate the previous statement that all three of the robbers were killed. The names of the thieves were John Stankard, a farmer resident of San Juan, in this county; Bill Gray, an ex-convict, lately a blacksmith in this place, and James Eppenrein. The horses were taken from Bitter Water on Sunday night. On Monday morning a man named Dick Taylor met the thieves and recognized the stock. He notified the parties who had lost them of the direction the thieves had taken. A posse, consisting of Richard and Calhoun Tully, George Hanson and Lewis Lowell, the owners of the horses, armed with Henry rifles and pistols, immediately started in pursuit. They came up with the thieves, who were armed with six-shooters, on the plains near Huron, Fresno county, and a running fight commenced, lasting for a distance of fourteen miles, resulting, as before stated, in the death of the three robbers. None of the citizens were injured.

The Secretary of the Interior has decided to pay the salaries of census enumerators at the rate of 10 cents an hour for services rendered in connection with the work about to close. It has given rise to dissatisfaction among enumerators who have collected the largest number of names, who claim that, under the provisions of the census bill, they are entitled to receive either $4 per day, or be paid at the rate of two cents a name. The Secretary of the Interior holds, however, that the census bill has been construed wrongly in this respect, and says that it is left to his discretion to disburse the appropriation according to his own ideas of economy.

In contradiction of a report telegraphed that the people of Silver City, New Mexico, were in a starving condition for want of supplies, the Citizen of this city has received the following dispatch, dated Silver City, June 21st: "No one is starving here. It is true that sugar, coffee, bacon and flour are very scarce on account of the delay of trains through fear of Indians; but we have an abundance of good beef, mutton and bear meat."

Tilden sent the following to Hancock: "I cordially congratulate you on your nomination. Signed, SAMUEL J. TILDEN."

The anti-Chinese resolution in the Democratic platform has been adopted by the committee in the precise form demanded by the Pacific Coast members. It is said to be very strong.

Elegant sun-shades match the toilets this season.

To the Public.

RENO, Nev., April 10, 1880. We shall discontinue our banking and brokerage business on or about July 1, 1880. All persons indebted to us must settle their accounts in full before that date.

A National Bank Incorporation will succeed us (and occupy our present quarters or place of business.) All deposits in our hands at that date will be transferred to said incorporation.
